CV
Dr. Eng. Mohammad Abu Omar, PhD

Short Biographical

Dr. Mohammad Abu Omar received his Ph.D. with distinction in Information Systems from the Limkokwing University of Creative Technology, Malaysia.

Dr. Abu Omar received the title (Prominent Scientist) from the academic union oxford in the UK as an appreciation for his international research work and activities and for his rich academic experience. He is currently a head of computer information systems (CIS) department in the faculty of technology at Al-Quds Open University in Palestine, and he is also an assistant professor in the same faculty. Abu Omar has published many papers related to the area of information technology and management information systems in international impact peer- reviewed journals, which some of them are indexed in Thomson Reuters (ISI) database. He also has several scientific international memberships, and he is a member in many editorial boards in international peer- reviewed journals. Abu Omar is also a member of the scientific committees of many international conferences throughout the world including: USA, UK, Switzerland, Poland, Malaysia, Japan, and India.

Personal

Name: DR. Mohammad Abu Omar
Address: Palestine, West Bank, Tulkarm City, Nablus Street
HP:00970 599- 87 80 68, House: 00970 9-2692760
E-mail: dr.mohammad.abu.omar@gmail.com , momar@qou.edu

Education

Qualification	Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) - With Distinction -
Specialization	Information Systems
Thesis	Developing a New Integrated Model for Building Management Information Systems to Solve Management Problems by Using Classical Approach
University	Limkokwing University of Creative Technology, Malaysia
Year	July, 2016

Qualification	Master of Science (MSC)
Specialization	Scientific Computing
Thesis	Using C Language on Scientific Computing Applications
University	Birzeit University, Palestine
Year	2007

Qualification	Bachelor Degree of Engineering
Specialization	Electronics Engineering
University	Al-Quds University, Jerusalem, Abu Dees, Palestine
Year	2004